

Your Attention.

IS CALLED TO THE FACT that we sell CLOTHING at the same price as the "cheap tailor," and give better material. We sell clothing of the same material as the high-priced tailor, and sell at lower prices. For instance: Our elegant lot of Men's Suits in Fancy Stripes at $7.50, $10, $12.50 and $15 will fit like a "tailor-made."

Then we have those Clay and German Worsted Suits at $10, $12.50, $15, $18 and $20. They are something unsurpassed for STYLE and FIT and genuine fabric—just the article for a Wedding Suit.

It's just the time for Fall Overcoats. Drop in and quiz us about our Top Coats. We have them at $9, $10, $12, and up to $20.

Then it's not too early to think about heavier Overcoats. In a Men's Kersey, black or blue, we can fit you out at $7.50, $10, $12.50, $15 and $18.

For style and excellency in quality there's nothing better on the market than our Men's Oxford Overcoats, ranging in price from $22 to $222.

BY THE WAY, have you thought about the Rainy Day. We mean one of those cold and ugly rainy days, that come along during the fall and early winter, when a Mackintosh feels so comfortable? We have them ranging in price from $3 to $18.

YOURS VERY TRULY, GREISEN BROS.,
COLUMBUS, NEBR.

—Never try to coax a cold or cough, use the remedy that unfailingly conquers both. BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP is the great specific for all throat and lung troubles. Price, 25 and 50 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.
—Will Hensley is enjoying a week's visit with his home folks, expecting to return today or tomorrow to his duties at the auditor's office, Union Pacific headquarters, Omaha. He had an operation on his left eye and has been using a bandage over it.
—Mrs. Burke, aged 65-years, wife of M. Burke, one of the old settlers on Shell creek, died Tuesday and was buried Thursday of last week, services being held in St. Bonaventura Catholic church at 10:30. She leaves a husband, two daughters and one son to mourn her departure.
—We omitted last week to mention the inspection of Union Camp No. 134, Sons of Veterans. Colonel C. C. Stull of Osceola was the officer. When the members of the G. A. R. post arrived at the hall they were given a surprise in the shape of a fine lunch. All had a good time.
—Mrs. G. B. Spies and Mrs. Robert Wagner entertained the members of the ladies' Orpheus society Friday evening to a card party in the Orpheus hall. Louis Brunken was the gentleman's prize, a box of cigars, and Mrs. Gregor was the lady's prize, a china cup and saucer.
—J. N. Heister came from the south last week and visited friends at St. Edward. While at St. Louis, Mo., the other night at a republican ratification, it gratified him a good deal to note the attention bestowed upon Nebraska. Every one in a while would come a transgressor "What's the matter with Nebraska? She's all right!"
—Miss Maud Miller of this city and Mr. Leroy Hanson of Cedar Rapids were married Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Corvey officiating. Mr. David Boyd of this city and Miss Ethel McCombs of Grand Island, acting as groomsmen and bridesmaids. The couple went Monday to Cedar Rapids, where they will make their future home.
—Many people are suffering fearfully from indigestion or dyspepsia, when one single bottle of HERBINE would bring about a prompt and permanent cure. A few drops will do more for a weak stomach than a prolonged course of any other medicine. Price, 50 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.
—Central City had a big ratification meeting and among the special features were refreshments, given out in a thousand "fall dinner plates" which were passed among the audience, and it was intended that every one should get a pill containing a Japanese napkin, two sandwiches, a doughnut, and an apple, which with coffee provided a very comfortable lap supper, says the Nonpareil.
—Heart socials are getting to be the proper thing. Paper hearts are numbered, placed on a wall, one at a time, and the gentlemen desiring to wound a heart, are given a Cupid's bow and arrow, required to stand ten feet away and shoot. Twenty-five cents, first venture, ten cents each subsequent attempt. The numbers on the hearts correspond with the numbers in the lunch baskets.
—Say, have you noticed those swell Box and Automobile coats so many ladies are wearing? Well we sold most of them, and have a few left—but what we wanted to tell you was that we have bought a lot of last year's jackets, just a little different from this year's styles, and say, you can get them at one-half the price. Good sensible coats, worth $10 to $5. Ask to see them. F. H. Lamb & Co.
—An explosion in Jacob's shoe store at Madison Square, started business men in nearby buildings. A half hour after the fire was lighted there was a loud report followed by pieces of iron. A torpedo, similar to those used on railroads, had fallen in the coal and it exploded, tearing the stove in pieces. The double firebox was wrecked, the doors knocked off and several lengths of pipe were flattened.
—We have just received a new sample line of strictly all-wool carpets, which we are selling at 50, 55, 60 and 65 cents a yard, also new patterns of linoleum from 50 cents a square yard upward; a new line of window shades, best opaque at 25 cents each, in plain colors. Men's, ladies' and children's shoes, lined underwear and hose, at the very lowest prices in the city. The best quality of standard colons at 5 cents a yard. We pay you the highest price for eggs. The Fair.
—John C. Sprecher of Schuyler was in the city Saturday. He will have the distinction of serving our neighboring county of Colfax in the next legislature. Being a former republican, he has of course many elements of good principles in his make-up, and the public can confidently expect good work from him, at least along non-partisan lines. When parties are about evenly divided in a deliberative assembly, the minority have a better opportunity for faithfully serving the public than when the majority against them is overwhelming, and inclined to be unscrupulous.
—For all fresh cuts or wounds, either on the human subject or on animals, BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT is excellent; while for corn-bushers' sprained wrists, barbed-wire cuts and sores on working horses, it cannot be too highly commended. Price, 25 and 50 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.
—There is probably no disease more distressing and annoying than piles. TABLET'S BUCKEYE PILE OINTMENT is daily curing cases of years' standing itching and bleeding piles. The cure begins on the first application, a little perseverance makes the cure complete. Price, 50 cents in bottles. Tubes, 75 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.
—Thirty years ago it was not an uncommon sight in Columbus to see the pipe of peace passed around from Indian to white man, indiscriminately, but last Saturday one white man met another at a street corner, and taking a freshly-lighted cigar out of his mouth, placed it in that of his friend. Customs change somewhat, but human nature is much the same in all generations.
—The Monroe Looking Glass gives a description of a fine new stable recently built by H. J. Hendryx, and remarks further: "Then he has a horse (presented by a wealthy friend in Chicago) that can take the bridle from an ordinary man when he makes a brush, he is a horse and has a record of 2:32. We imagine Mr. Hendryx will be fixed to enjoy himself if his business does not keep him too busy."
—In District court, Judge Grinnison presiding, Mrs. J. C. Fillman was granted a divorce, with the residence property in this city; a quarter section of land in Butler county and a section of land in Boone county. The State vs. Thandel, charged with burglary, jury disagreed. In Gillespie vs. Holleran, plaintiff given leave to file amended petition in ten days. McAllister vs. Reins, on trial Tuesday morning.
—Word was received here Sunday morning of the death Saturday night, 10:30, of D. M. Erskine, of St. Paul, after an affliction of sixteen years, the last two of which he was totally disabled. He was 50 years old and for fifteen years had been a traveling salesman for Paxton & Gallagher of Omaha. He was an elder brother of our townsman, J. E. Erskine, who has the sympathy of all his acquaintances in his bereavement.
—One of the jurors who was out all night on the case of the State against Julius Thandel, in one of the small jury rooms of our present court house, says he would be more than willing to stand his share of the tax for a new court house, and he is a large land owner in the county. It is estimated that a levy amounting to 25¢ cents an acre would produce a fund of $45,000, saying nothing of a levy on personal property.
—Jacob Trimpi, Jr., 19-years-old, was fined $10 and costs Saturday for disturbing the peace. The evidence showed that he threw a piece of broken plate and struck Mrs. Baumgartner in the temple making a wound from which she bled profusely. The woman had in her arms an eight-months-old child at the time, and had the missile struck the child the result might have been fatal. In default of payment the lad was committed to the county jail.
—In the case of the State vs. E. C. Fitzsimmons the case was dismissed in district court Friday on a technicality. The defendant was charged with disposing of mortgaged property and on examination by Justice Hendon he was bound over to the district court. Fitzsimmons was at once re-arrested on a warrant issued by Justice Curtis, and the examination was continued until December 14, 1900, the witnesses furnishing recognizance in the sum of $100 and the defendant in the sum of $200.
—We find the following paragraph in a late number of the Seward Blade. It shows that we have a Chief Justice who (besides being good at the law), is not averse to a line of pleasurable business that he has declined for years. "Judge Norval won seven first and three second premiums at the state fair on his Barred and Buff Plymouth Rocks and White Wyandottes. He has 1,000 thoroughbred cockerels and pullets, which, to make room, he offers at low prices for a short time. They will cost more later on."
—HOLIDAY GOODS are now ready for your inspection, and we flatter ourselves that we can please you with our complete stock of fascinating, handkerchiefs and gowns' furnishings. We aim to keep up with the procession in all the various lines we handle, and our low prices insure quick sales and a new and up-to-date line of goods on our shelves at all times. Blankets, from 50¢ up. Outstanding flannellets at lowest prices. Call and inspect our stock of dry goods, groceries, boots and shoes. ASCH & BRYAN.
—A few weeks since the Enterprise had occasion to refer to the presence of Mr. H. H. Hake, a successful and prominent citizen of Omaha. This gentleman has returned to Omaha and is visiting with Col. Cody. It is with pleasure that we learn that Mr. Hake will very probably be identified with Cody in a financially responsible manner, a piece of information very acceptable in a business way and also in a personal manner by the hosts of friends this very affable gentleman has secured through his unaffected and genial conduct during his present and former visits—Cody (Wyoming) Enterprise.
—Mr. and Mrs. M. Vogel were given a pleasant surprise by the Measenercher society in their hall, last Friday evening, when they entered the Measenercher society on the occasion being the Twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Vogel were married twenty-five years ago in Indianapolis, coming to Columbus, where they were in business on Eleventh street for twenty years. Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Graf and Mrs. Grinnison were sent as delegates to bring them to the hall, where they found about two hundred Measenercher members who had gathered for the occasion. A handsome china set, mounted in silver, was presented to them. The City Band was present during a portion of the evening, and furnished music for those who wished to dance, and an elegant supper was served in the west hall. Mr. and Mrs. Vogel have two children, Miss Katherine and Anton.
